

The Prime Minister has asked the general public to have trust in the Governments economic team, following the appointment of the new Minister of Finance, urging public cooperation for peace and order in society. The Prime Minister promised that the Government is fully committed to solving economic problems carefully, by addressing all affected groups and taking all measures.
(25/10/2020)

---