

The Ministry of Commerce will continue its Blue Flag project in order to offer reasonably priced products to decrease the cost of living for the public. Recently, the Bueng Kan Commercial Office, in cooperation with the Internal Trade Department Office, organized a Blue Flag Fair at Tong Chom market, Bueng Kan province. Large numbers of people came to buy products featured in the event. Moreover, it will continue to take place on every Friday and Saturday from January until September 2017. (23/1/2017)
