

DAY 1 HIGHLIGHTS

PRD Press Briefing and Study Tour
13-15 June 2017, Chiang Rai

The Government Public Relations Department's Foreign Office is organizing a press briefing and study tour on the topic Sustainable Life under the Shade of Royally Initiated Projects on 13-15 June 2017 at Chiang Rai province. Today, 21 media members from 19 international news agencies attended a press briefing on the Doi Tung Development Project, visited the Hall of Inspiration, explored Doi Tung Royal Villa, stopped by Doi Chang Mub Military Base on the Thai-Myanmar border, and learned about after-school Chinese language classes for children in a village at Mae Fah Luang district. Media members were also enthusiastically engaged in a special talk session with five speakers, who represented their ethnic minority group in the area, by asking questions and exchanging their thoughts on the success of the Doi Tung Development Project.

Read more here: Thailand.prd.go.th

The Government Public Relations Departments Foreign Office is organizing a press briefing and study tour on the topic Sustainable Life under the Shade of Royally Initiated Projects on 13-15 June 2017 at Chiang Rai province. Today, 21 media members from 19 international news agencies attended a press briefing on the Doi Tung Development Project, visited the Hall of Inspiration, explored Doi Tung Royal Villa, stopped by Doi Chang Mub Military Base on the Thai-Myanmar border, and learned about after-school Chinese language classes for children in a village at Mae Fah Luang district. Media members were also enthusiastically engaged in a special talk session with five speakers, who represented their ethnic minority group in the area, by asking questions and exchanging their thoughts on the success of the Doi Tung Development Project.