

As Thailand is becoming an absolute aging society in 2021, the Government approved a long-term action plan that covers several aspects health, society, economy, environment, etc., for more effective taking care of the elderly in the upcoming aging society. The action plan focuses on money saving, the elderly cares, environmental adjustment for the elderly, schools for the elderly, digital learning, jobs and employment support, and more. (9/1/2020)

---