

As Thailand is expecting to become truly an aging society in 2021, the Government approved a long-term action plan that covers several aspects health, society, economy, environment, and the like for more effective care of the elderly in the changing society. The action plan focuses on money saving, ways to care for the elderly, environmental adjustments for the elderly, schools for the elderly, digital learning, jobs and employment support, and more. (9/1/2020)

---