

The Ministry of Public Health (MOPH) in cooperation with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MFA) has organised a briefing on the COVID-19 situation in Thailand for international partners including Embassies, NGOs and other civil society organisations. The MOPH stated that communication is an important key in combating this virus and the Government has multiple platforms for information about COVID-19 such as a national hotline 1422, governments social media channels and daily press briefings. (13/2/2020)
