

The Royal Thai Navy disclosed that the new ferry terminal located within the Chuk Samet deep-sea port is ready to operate sea transportation between eastern and southern Thailand under the Royal Thai Navys supervision. The new ferry terminal is part of the Eastern Economic Corridor infrastructure, in line with the governments national strategy on security and enhancing business competitiveness. (19/2/2020)

---